BACKGROUND: The devastating flood at the end of 1988 engulfed large landscape of the country causing huge damage of lives and properties, which also badly affected to the lives of the peoples in Sirajganj district that situated on the bank of the most treacherous river Jamuna. The national and international NGOs came forward to provide succor to the victims of this deluge. A group of local youth including Md. Alauddin Khan, the chief executive of NDP now has voluntarily dedicated themselves in emergency response and rehabilitation works under the guidance of these NGOs. The experience they gained through it inspired them to take any sustainable development initiatives for the poor people. With this end in view, under the leadership of Md. Alauddin Khan, the “National Development Programme (NDP)” has established on 1st January 1992. It is a non-governmental organization, called as “NGO”. By virtue of the constitution, it is a non-political and non-profit organization. The key objective of NDP is to strengthen capacity of the targeted project participants (beneficiaries) and create scope for bringing them in the main stream of development. Since its establishment, NDP has been paying efforts in view to changing livelihoods of the poor people it serves and committed to continue its work for their development as long as needed.

CORE VALUES AND PRINCIPLES:

CORE VALUES: NDP respects the values and beliefs of its development partners, and strives to collaborate with them in development interventions that reflect their principles and aspirations. NDP endeavors to work with those who share their expectations, sincere approach and implementation of its operations. It places win-win dealings with others and has a strong commitment to being responsive to their needs. NDP aims to provide standard quality of services that makes a valuable contribution to change livelihoods of the poor people.

PRINCIPLES: The basic principles of NDP are participation, accountability, transparency, commitment, professionalism, networking and sustainability. NDP also believes that access to information and public services is the basic right of all people in a community.

STRATEGY: *Crawling, crawling, stand, walk and self-propel is the motto of NDP.

NDP decides its programme focusing on the need of community people especially the hard to reach poor people, PWD, women and other disadvantaged groups. Strategies for the programmes have been developed considering the gradual empowerment of the partners and stakeholders as well as the optimum use of the local resources and a safe environment for the future generation.

Current programme strategies of NDP are always in line with government commitments to development programme and focus on achieving the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). All programmes are considered based on the available public and private resources before allocation of own resources. Facilitation supports are provided to establish linkages between the people and the service providers. Emphasis on reducing people's dependency on development organizations is also a priority. Awareness building, skill development and mobilization of local resources are the main elements of development.

Guiding by the Strategic Plan (2015-2018), presently NDP has been continuing its programme on seven main development sectors; Social, Economic, Livelihoods, Agricultural, Energy & Environment, Institutional and Rights & Governance.
